

Bronx Parent Center Without Walls

An Information & Training Center

FREE TRAININGS FOR PARENTS ABOUT NYC PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Do you have questions about enrollment, transfer and/or transportation procedures?

Is your child struggling in school? Curious about what services are available to help your child in school?

Would you like to learn more about your rights to participate in your child's education?

Join Advocates for Children and the Bronx Borough President's Office for a 3-part training series for parents designed to answer your questions about your rights as parents in New York City public schools, the special education process, and suspensions.

- Monday, Sept. 21: Back to School Info Session
Tuesday, Oct. 6: Special Education: Navigating the System
Tuesday, Nov. 10: Resources & Advocacy Tips for Students Struggling in School

Time: 6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

Location: Bronx Borough President's Office
851 Grand Concourse ave. Room 916

Co-Sponsored by the Office of Bronx Borough President Ruben Diaz, Jr.

For additional information please contact Jesse Mojica, Director of Education and Youth, Office of the Bronx Borough President at 718-590-3515.